

Philip Healy

Phil is a former senior police officer, having recently retired from West Midlands Police in December 2020. Throughout his 35 years within policing, he has acquired a substantial amount of experience and exposure to crisis management, operational and strategic leadership. For the last three years of his service, he was the Local Policing Superintendent for the City of Coventry where he built strong resilient and trusting relationships with the Local Authority and local communities across the City.

Since retiring from the police service, he has become self-employed, currently working with a variety of organisations relating to Leadership and Management, including executive coaching. To cement his operational/strategic experience, Phil has acquired an BA and MA in Management & Leadership.

Phil is originally from Coventry and he is continually trying to positively influence the lives of young people within the City, he was appointed as Chair of Coventry Extended Learning Centre (ELC) Management Committee in October 2020 and he is the lead governor for Safeguarding.

Phil is also a governor/trustee within Coventry School Foundation (CSF) since June 2020.
