Dear Sir/Madam

Freedom of Information Act 2000 (FOIA)
Request ID: FOI352767990

Thank you for your request for information relating to Terry Hall presents Home Sessions.

You have requested the following information:

- 1. How many of the support acts, singers, artistes, musicians or performers who are performing on the 'Home Grown' programme as part of the Terry Hall presents Home Sessions, are white, English, over 50 years of age and from Coventry?
- 2. According to your web site (<https://coventry2021.co.uk/news/local-line-up-announced-for-home-grown-at-terry-hall-presents-home-sessions/>) After fending off competition from more than 100 fellow local musicians, the successful artists were selected by a judging panel. This being the case, why does the support act, Whitehouse, have two support gigs on Friday 30 July, Cathedral Ruins, 11.30pm and Saturday 31 July, HMV Empire Coventry 9.30pm, when there were "more than 100 fellow local musicians" to choose from?

We can confirm that we do not hold this information and are advising you as per Section 1(1) of the Act. This information is not held by Coventry City Council.

The requested information is held by City of Culture who are the event organiser. To assist you further, contact details for City of Culture are accessible using the contact details on the following link:
