Please contact us if you would like information about the different types of memorials available in the Gardens of Remembrance.

Woodland Area

General Information

In order to keep the appearance of the crematorium Gardens of Remembrance in a pleasant condition, we reserve the right to periodically inspect and remove any floral tributes.

We respectfully ask that only cut flowers are placed in the Gardens of Remembrance and that ALL wrapping and cellophane is removed.

Thank you for your co-operation in this matter.

Canley Crematorium Gardens of Remembrance

Lily Pond

The Gardens of Remembrance are open throughout the year as follows:

Summer:

April – September 8.30am – 9.00pm

Winter:

October – March 8.30am to 5.00pm

Gardens of Remembrance

The gardens are made up from several different areas including the Traditional Rose Garden, Seasonal areas and The Woodlands.

Following the cremation, you may wish for the cremated remains of your loved one to be strewn in the Gardens of Remembrance. These arrangements can be made through your Funeral Director or directly with Coventry Bereavement Services.

Bereavement Services will retain a record of the area where the strewing has taken place.

Questions and Answers

Q: Can I put floral tributes in the gardens?

A: Yes, but those tributes must be cut flowers only with all of the wrapping and cellophane removed.

Q: Will my tributes be removed?

A: Yes, we will remove tributes, which have dried out from the lawns and rose beds approximately every seven days.

Q: Can I plant my own flowers, roses or shrubs etc?

A: You may only plant your own items in the areas located around a leased Individual Garden (see memorial leaflet for more information.) You are not permitted to plant in any other areas of the gardens.

Q: Can I put my tributes in a vase, or bring a planter?

A: No, vases or planters are not acceptable within the gardens as they create obstructions, and if broken can cause harm to others.

Q: Do you have a Book of Remembrance?

A: Yes, our Book of Remembrance is located in the Book Room.

Q: Do you supply memorialisation in the Gardens of remembrance?

A: Yes, please see our Memorial Leaflet or contact us for further information.

The Gardens of Remembrance are designed as a place of peace and tranquility. They not only provide a fitting resting place for your loved one but are also intended to be enjoyed by the whole community. Those seeking the solace of quiet contemplation and those who appreciate the beauty of well maintained gardens are very welcome to visit.

The Coventry Bereavement Services commitment is to continue to maintain the Gardens of Remembrance to the highest possible standard as a shared testament of remembrance.
