Dear Sir/Madam

Freedom of Information Act 2000 (FOIA)

Request ID: FOI441995226

Thank you for your request for information relating to Coventry City safe sleep/SUDI prevention policy.

You have requested the following information:

As part of this project, we are undertaking a nationwide review of official Infant Safe Sleep or SUDI prevention policies at both the district council and county level. This would constitute the official guidance relating to safe baby sleeping that health and/or social care practitioners are required to follow when working with families.

It may be that Coventry City Council has not yet implemented an official policy yet. If so, please let me know as soon as possible. If you already have such a policy in place, I would be very grateful if you could share that policy with us so that the information can be included in our review.

We do not hold the requested information and therefore advising you as per Section 1(1) of the Act. Coventry City Council does not have an official policy however, to assist you further the following website link provides information to support practitioners when working with families.
